

Jacqueline Whitmore

A Foremost Authority on Business Etiquette and Protocol

Josephine Lui is one of the hardest working people in this industry. She truly cares about helping others succeed and will do anything she can to make others shine.

She is honest and has a kind, generous heart and is always willing to go the extra mile when most people would rather give up.

She is the consummate learner and is always striving to fine-tune her leadership skills. That's what makes her stand out among her competition.

I highly recommend Josephine to anyone looking for a mentor, trainer or seminar leader.
